

STUDENT TRAVEL AGREEMENT

Students traveling on University-sponsored trips are required to adhere to the following:

1. I accept full responsibility for my actions and conduct while traveling, and realize that I am expected to positively represent Edinboro University while on this trip.
2. I will conduct myself in accordance with applicable laws and with the Edinboro University Student Code of Conduct.
3. I agree that I will not transport or use illegal drugs, alcohol, or weapons, throughout the duration of any University-sponsored activity.
4. I will comply with all rules established by the trip leader, and will treat the trip leader with respect.
5. If I believe that the trip leader is behaving in an inappropriate manner, I will report such behavior to the Vice President for Student Affairs or the Provost immediately upon my return to campus.
6. I certify that I have no physical or mental health issues that could jeopardize my safety or the safety of others involved in this travel. In the event of an emergency, I understand that the trip leader/advisor and/or other University officials will share information with my emergency contact as noted on the Student Travel Manifest Form.
7. I understand that there are certain risks inherent in the participation of off campus activities including, but not limited to, illness, accidents and injuries. I voluntarily accept this risk associated with participating in this activity and will hold the University, the Edinboro University Student Government Association, and its affiliates harmless for any real or perceived dangers and damages resulting from University travel.
8. I understand that if I am found in violation of any of the above conditions I may be removed from the trip. I understand that I will be responsible for reimbursement of all costs incurred for such a removal and may be required to return to Edinboro at my own expense.
9. I acknowledge that violations of this policy may result in judicial action through the Edinboro University Student Code of Conduct.
10. For my safety and the safety of others traveling, I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to share any medical conditions with the group leader that could impact my participation on the trip. (i.e. diabetes, seizures, etc.)
