School Psychology Scholarships Offered

TED AND CAROLYN ERION SCHOLARSHIP

An employee of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Joel Erion is a professor of School Psychology. He established this scholarship to provide financial assistance to high achieving students entering the School Psychology Program and to honor his parents for the wonderful example they set for academic accomplishment and being helpful to others. This scholarship is awarded to a first semester student who is enrolled full-time in the School Psychology Program, has an undergraduate GPA of 3.5 or better, and submits an essay and resume.

DEBRA BEMILLER HUDEK MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was created in memory of Debra Hudek, by her husband Stephen. Mrs. Hudek graduated from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology in 1976; received a master’s degree in Educational Psychology in 1977 and completed the School Psychology Certificate Program in 1979. The recipient of this award must be pursuing a master’s degree in the Educational Psychology Program or certification in the School Psychology Program. The student must have a minimum 3.5 QPA in graduate coursework to be eligible. Prospective students must complete an application and submit a one-page essay (double-spaced) explaining career goals, which will be evaluated by the Scholarship Committee. The student must also submit a resumé and a recommendation letter.

DR. JAMES S. B. TAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is awarded to a student who is enrolled full-time in the school psychology master’s program, has earned a minimum of 18 credits with a minimum cumulative QPA of 3.0, demonstrates financial need, and submits an essay and resume. This scholarship can only be awarded during the Fall and/or Spring semesters.
