

EDINBORO UNIVERSITY

M.Ed. Educational Psychology - Online

The master of education degree in educational psychology has been designed to give the interested student a broad theoretical and practical background in the areas of education and psychology. The program will be of interest to those planning to pursue certification in school psychology after the master's degree, those wishing to broaden their understanding of human development and learning, and those wishing to learn more about evaluation and research.

Respect for diversity among individuals, groups, and communities are emphasized throughout the curriculum. The goal of our program is to help each candidate to identify and apply his/her unique talents while utilizing problem-solving, data-based approaches that allow him/her to work with children and families having a broad range of needs. The focus of our program is on the application of empirically supported approaches to assist all children in achieving academic success, social competence, and emotional and physical health.

Admission Requirements: All admission materials should be sent to: School of Graduate Studies, Biggers House, 148 Meadville Street, Edinboro, PA 16444 or via email gradstudies@edinboro.edu or via fax 814-732-2611.

1. Complete the online graduate application (online.edinboro.edu)
2. Application Fee: $30. (if not former EUP student); $7 (if former EUP student)
3. An official transcript verifying an earned baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution.
4. Applicants should obtain scores averaging at or above the 30th percentile for verbal, quantitative, and analytical writing sections of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE). Edinboro University's GRE code is 003321.
5. Minimum 3.0 QPA for junior and senior year of bachelor's degree
6. Three letters of reference; forms are available at the REFERENCE FORMS link of the School of Graduate Studies and Research homepage.
7. Professional resume
8. Submit a one – two page essay answering the following questions:
 - a. What attracted you to the field of educational/school psychology?
 - b. What attributes do you possess that will enable you to succeed as a graduate student and ultimately as a practitioner?
 - c. What are your professional goals?

Master of Education in Educational Psychology Curriculum

30 credits

A minimum of 30 semester of graduate credit must be earned as a requirement for this degree. Depending upon the individual student's interests and input from the advisor, the student selects course work from the plan of study (see other side) for educational psychology. Upon entry into the program and following each 12 credits of course work, the student and his or her advisor assess the student's progress. (See reverse side for course listing).

Required Courses		21 credits
EDUC 783	Philosophical Foundations of Education	3 credits
EDUC 788	Research in Education	3 credits
APSY 720	Learning Theories	3 credits
APSY 724	Psychoeducational Assessment of Behavioral and Developmental Disabilities	3 credits
APSY 727	Psychology Counseling and Intervention	3 credits
SPED 710	Seminar in Exceptionalities	3 credits
	OR
SPED 750	Seminar in Behavior Disorders	3 credits
	OR
SPED 780	Learning Disabilities (with permission of recommendation of advisor)	3 credits
SPED 720	Advanced Assessment of Special Education	3 credits
	OR
APSY 615	Introduction to School Psychology (for school psychology certification students)	3 credits

Elective Course 9 credits

A minimum of six credit hours must have the APSY and SPED prefix.

APSY 721	Biological, Social, and Cultural Bases of Personality	3 credits
SPED 750	Seminar in Behavior Disorders	3 credits
SPED 780	Learning Disabilities	3 credits
COUN740	Individual Development through Adolescence	3 credits
APSY 628	Behavior Modification in Education*	3 credits
APSY 794	Seminar in Behavior Modification*	3 credits
APSY 796	Eclectic Strategies*	3 credits

*These courses must be taken if the candidate is pursuing the behavior specialist certificate.

Financial Assistance: Additional information about other forms of financial aid is available through the Office of Financial Aid, (814) 732-2821 or toll-free (888) 611-2680.

Employer Reimbursement : Non-traditional students who are working and taking classes on a part-time basis may have employer-paid education benefits. The purpose of the employer tuition reimbursement agreement is to allow employees who receive reimbursement to defer payment of their tuition and fees until after grades are available at the end of the semester. Edinboro University accepts employer benefit plans through arrangements with the Bursar's Office by completing the enclosed employer tuition reimbursement agreement.

For More Information: If you have questions about the application process, please contact Edinboro University's School of Graduate Studies at (814) 732-2856 or toll-free (888) 845-2890. For questions specific to the master's degree in Educational Psychology please contact Dr. Edward Snyder at (814) 732-1099(esnyder@edinboro.edu) or Jessica Albert, Graduate Admissions Counselor at (814)732-1353 (jalbert@edinboro.edu).