MATT DUNDULIS, CLASS OF ‘17
Major: Business – Accounting Personal Financial Planning
Hometown: Erie, PA

I was introduced to Edinboro through an Alumni connection. One common quality among all the alumni of Edinboro I have met is their passion for EU. They reveal this passion in many ways through mentoring students, coming back to speak to our classes, and through providing financial support to our students. Not only has my education been supported by alumni, they have provided me with invaluable advice, support, and opportunities. When I graduate, I know I will pay forward the kindness I have received.

My name is Matt. Your passion inspires me to make the most of my education.

From the time I was young, it was a personal goal of mine to attend and graduate from a university. The scholarships I receive inspire me to have faith in myself and make it possible to pursue my dreams. I work hard to make sure I do well and return the investment Edinboro made in me. SYDNEY TRATHEN, CLASS OF ‘18
Major: Speech and Hearing Sciences – Audiology

My advisor, Dr. Roy Shinn, made the difference in my education. Through his passion, I was able to find my focus in Audiology. He always makes sure I put my academics first and he pushes me to do my best — on the court and in the classroom. I always know I can look up in McComb Fieldhouse and see him cheering us on in the stands. Chances are you are like me and a scholarship helped make your Edinboro education possible. As a scholar-athlete I understand how individual actions impact team performance. The lessons I’ve learned on the court here at Edinboro will undoubtedly serve me well in my personal and professional life.
