INTENT

The intent of this policy is to specify regulations and procedures for reinstatement to Edinboro University of Pennsylvania by undergraduate students who have been suspended or who have withdrawn from study, as well as those who have not been enrolled for at least one semester.

POLICY

1. Undergraduate students whose enrollment at Edinboro University has lapsed for at least one academic semester and who have previously withdrawn from the University must make application for reinstatement to the Office of Records and Registration. Reinstatement into any academic major is subject to the approval of the dean of the appropriate school.
2. Financial obligations and any account holds that prevent registration will preclude reinstatement to the University.
3. Students under disciplinary suspension will not be considered for reinstatement until the terms of the suspension sanction have been met.
4. Students under academic suspension for the first time will be considered for reinstatement provided at least one academic semester has elapsed since suspension. Students suspended a second time will not be reinstated (see Academic Warning, Probation and Suspension Policy, A023). Students requesting reinstatement from suspension or who were on probation at the time of withdrawal may be subject to conditions for reinstatement.
5. Undergraduate students may repeat failed coursework at another institution. Students should utilize a transfer articulator, such as the PA TRAC, to assist in selecting transferrable courses from another institution. It is strongly suggested that students consult with their academic advisor or Dean prior to registering for classes. Following completion of the coursework, the student must have an official transcript sent to the Edinboro University Admissions Office. If the student earns a grade of "C-" or better, the credits are added to the academic record. If the student is repeating failed coursework, the failed course at Edinboro will be excluded from the student's GPA calculation.

6. Students who for any reason have interrupted their enrollment at Edinboro University for a period exceeding one calendar year are subject to the curriculum and graduation requirements in effect at the time of their reinstatement. Reinstated students who return to the University within one calendar year of their last enrollment have the option of continuing under the curriculum and graduation requirements for which they were responsible when they left the institution.

PROCEDURE

Application for reinstatement must be made to the Office of Records and Registration.
