

EDINBORO UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

NON-COMPETITIVE HOMECOMING FLOATS-Policy No. C025

Supersedes Policy No. C025, Dated 9/21/89

Recommended for Approval By Dr. Glenda M. Lawhorn, Vice President for Student Affairs

Approved By Foster F. Diebold, President on February 12, 1993

Review Date: As Required

INTENT

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania welcomes participation by community businesses and organizations in its annual Homecoming parade. The intent of this policy is to establish appropriate guidelines regarding the entry of non-competitive floats in the Homecoming parade to ensure the units are safe, attractive, and constructed in good taste.

POLICY

At least two months prior to the date of Homecoming, the Homecoming Chairperson will publicly announce the policy of the University to permit participation in the Homecoming parade by community businesses and organizations. The announcement will appear in the University student newspaper, The Spectator, the Edinboro Independent-Enterprise, and as a public service announcement over the University radio station. The final date on which entries may be submitted and a statement regarding the procedures established by the Homecoming committee and this policy will be included in the announcement.

PROCEDURE

Representatives of each business or organization interested in entering a float in the Homecoming parade are required to comply with the following stipulations:

- a. These floats will be considered "non-competitive" and ineligible for awards.
- b. The number of non-competitive floats can never exceed the number of competitive floats entered by students enrolled at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. Entries will be received on a first come-first served basis.

- c. The representative must secure a copy of the "Float Rules and Regulations" from the Homecoming Chairperson. The business or organization must fully comply with all rules and regulations established by the Homecoming Committee.
- d. A drawing of the proposed float must be submitted for approval by the Homecoming Chairperson and/or Committee.
- e. Businesses and organizations may not promote alcohol, tobacco or sexually explicit materials on their floats.
- f. Edinboro University of Pennsylvania reserves the right to screen all float entries and to refuse participation to any business or organization.
