I. INTENT

The intent of this policy is to describe the authority of the police officers employed in the University Police Department and the relationship of the University Police Department to other police agencies.

II. POLICY

The University Police Department serves as the full-time police authority on Edinboro University campus. University police officers are full-authority police, with the responsibility to enforce all Commonwealth of Pennsylvania laws, as well as the rules of Edinboro University. As such, University Police Department officers will obey all Federal and State laws regarding working relationships with other police agencies. Individuals on University property are encouraged to report all violations of law to the University Police Department.

III. AUTHORITY

All University police officers are commissioned by the Governor and the Pennsylvania Secretary of Education, and are sworn to uphold the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. University police officers are responsible for enforcement of all the rules and regulations of the University as well as laws of the Commonwealth and United States.

IV. WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH STATE AND LOCAL POLICE

Upon request, the University Police Department is assisted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania State Police in major incidents and investigations. Further, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania statutory mutual aid exists between the University Police Department and the Pennsylvania State Police, the Borough of Edinboro Police Department, Cambridge Springs Police Department, and the City of Erie Police Department. This statutory mutual aid is outlined in the Municipal Police Officers Jurisdiction Act - 42 Pa. Cons. Stat. § 8953.

V. POLICE TRAINING

All University police officers have completed the Municipal Police Officers Training Course under Act 120, the Municipal Police Officers' Education and Training Act, 53 Pa. C.S. Chapter 21, Subchapter D, and are recognized by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as Police Officers having full police powers, including the power to arrest. Additional training is provided on a continuing basis in a variety of subjects, and includes mandatory training under Act 180, the Municipal Police Officers' Education and Training Act, 53 Pa. C.S. §§ 2161-2171, as well as annual in-service training including cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and first aid training.
